NEW INSCRIPTIONS FROM THE SANCTUARY OF APOLLON LAIRBENOS

During our work in 2010 at the ruins of the sanctuary of Apollon Lairbenos we were able to discover some more dedications and katagraphai. Some of them are presented in this paper as continuation of our articles in EA 41 (2008) and 42 (2009)¹.

1. An architrave with a dedicatory inscription

Marble architrave with the lower part of a freeze decorated with garlands. It is now at the ruins of the sanctuary. Height 0.53 m, width 1.69 m, thickness 0.62 m, height of the letters 0.026 m.

Date: early 2nd century?

Φιλέτερος καὶ Μείλητος Ζήνονος (sic) Βλαουνδεῖς Ἀπόλλωνι Λαιρμηνῷ τὸν κείονα σὺν στυλοβάτῃ καὶ σπείρῃ καὶ κεφαλῇ καὶ ἐπιστυλίῳ καὶ ζωφόρῳ καὶ γείσι ἐκ τῶν ιδίων ἀνέθηκαν.

1 ΖΗΝΟΝΟΣ on the stone

"Phileteros and Meiletos, sons of Zenon, from Blaunda, dedicated this column together with platform and base and capital and architrave and cornice to Apollon Lairmenos from their own resources."

Phileteros (= Philetairos) and Meiletos, the brothers, natives of Blaunda², dedicated some elements of an intercolumnium (διάστυλον) for the sanctuary. For a similar, probably identical, ¹ We are grateful to H. H. Baysal, the Director of the Denizli Museum, and the archaeologist H. Yıldız for their kind permission to do this work and H. Malay for his advice.

Some of the abbreviations used in the article are:

architrave with other elements of an intercolumnium dedicated in the year 108/9 A.D. to the same deity see Öztürk-Tanrıver 2008, 105–6, no. 19.

2. Fragment of an architrave with a dedicatory inscription

Piece of a marble architrave. It is now at the ruins of the sanctuary. Height 0.38 m, width 0.89 m, thickness 0.49 m, height of the letters 0.028 m.

Date: late 1st or early 2nd century?

'Απόλλωνι Λαιρβηνῷ ἐπιφανεστάτῳ θεῷ ΤΑ[...] καὶ κεραμίδας ἐπὶ τὸν να[όν]

"[... dedicated to Apollon Lairbe]nos, the most manifest god ... and the tiles over the temple ...".

In addition to roof-tiles, the dedicant also contributed another item recorded at the end of the first line, e.g. τὰ[ς κίονας, "the columns"? For a record of dedication of 10 roof-tiles for the same sanctuary see Ritti-Şimşek-Yıldız 2000, D1 (= Miller 1985, 50) from about 90 A.D. On the construction of the sanctuary see Miller 1985, loc. cit.; Ricl 1995, 168; Ritti-Şimşek-Yıldız 2000, 3–4 and Öztürk-Tanrıver 2008, 105.

3. Dedication of a statue

Right portion of a marble base in three joining pieces. It records a dedication and two kata-graphai on the front surface and two katagraphai on the right. The stone is among the ruins of the temple. Height 0.99 m, width 0.425 m, thickness 0.49 m, height of the letters 0.02 to 0.027 m.

Date: earlier than 217/8 A.D.

“According to the command of the most manifest god, ... Vibius Onesimos set up this statue from his own resources to Apollon Lairmenos. In the month Artemisios of the year ...”.

This must have been the first inscription engraved on the base which probably carried a statue of the god (cf. likewise Öztürk-Tanrıver 2008, 94, no. 4).

4. Katagraphe

Below the preceding inscription (no. 3). Height of the letters 0.018 to 0.02 m.

Date: 302 Sulla = 217/8 A.D.

2 and 6 The name Λουλιανός (= Lulianus) is probably identical with Ιουλιανός (= Julianus); cf. Λουλιανή (= Iuliane) in TAM V, 3, 1857 (Philadelphia) also referring to Bull. ép. 1989, 496 (C. Brixhe)³.

4 Probably an ethnicum (or profession?).

9 The number Φ is engraved at the end of the next line.

“In the month Artemisios of the year 302, I, Loulianos, son (?) of Eutyches, assign my nursling and Loulianos my son (?) to Helios Apollon Lairbenos according to the command of the god. If anyone objects, he will pay to the god 2500 denarii and to the fiscus 2500 denarii.”

5. Katagraphe

Below the preceding inscription (no. 4). Height of the letters 0.018 to 0.02 m.

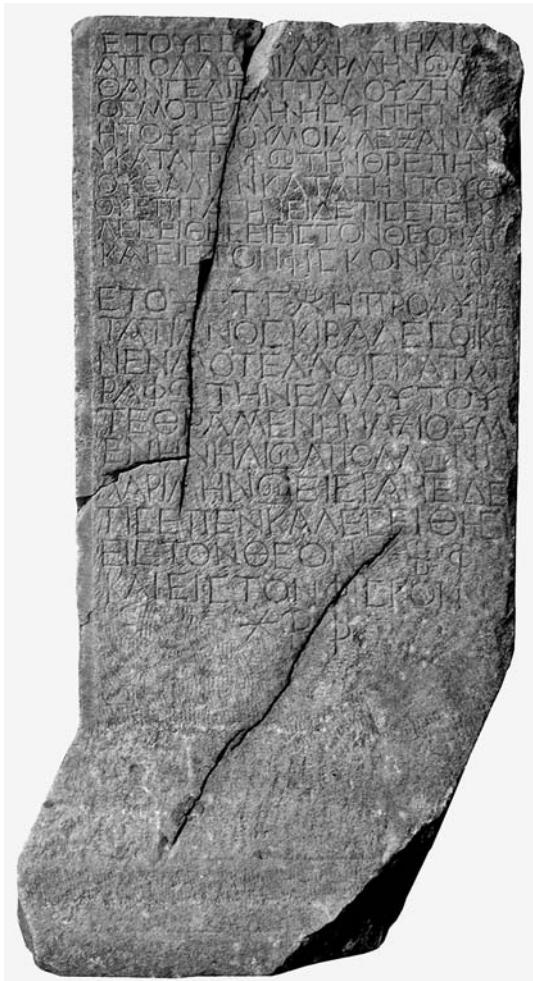

Date: 304 Sulla = 219/20 A.D.

3 The last letter (eta) is engraved above my.

8 The last letter (upsilon) is engraved at the end of the preceding line. – The name Φίρμιλ(λ)α is attested in the neighbouring city of Blaundos (see A. Filges, Blaundos. Berichte zur Erforschung einer Kleinstadt im lydisch-phrygischen Grenzgebiet, 2006, 340–2, no. 33a–c with three instances also quoted in LGPN V.A, s.v.

9 ἐ for εἰ (cf. Öztürk–Tanrıver 2008, 100, no. 11 with parallels).

“In the year 304, on the eighth day of the sixth month, I, Au[- - -]os, son of Euxenos (and) grandson of M-, from Motella, assign my nursling to Apollon Lairmenos as hiera with the agreement of my parents, -os and Firmil(l)a, and my son Euxenos. If anyone objects, he will pay a fine of 2500 denarii to the god and 2500 denarii to the fiscus.”

6. Katagraphē

Above the right surface of the same base with the records of two katagraphai. Width 0.49 m, thickness 0.425 m, height of the letters 0.017 to 0.021 m.

Date: earlier than 218/9 A.D.

“In the year 2[J].1, on the seventeenth day of the tenth month, I, Agathangelis, daughter of Attalos son of Zenon, from Motella, assign my nursling Thalia to Helios Apollon Larmentos with the agreement of Alexander, my son, according to the command of the god. If anyone objects, he will pay 2500 denarii to the god and 2500 denarii to the fiscus.”

7. Katagraphē

Below the preceding inscription (no. 6). Height of the letters 0.022 to 0.024 m.

Date: 303 Sulla = 218/9 A.D.

καὶ εἰς τὸν φίσκον
* ,βφ'.

2 Because of the fact that in some other instances the authors of katagraphai first record their ethnic origin followed by oikōn ἐν + toponym⁴, Κιβαλες may be regarded as an ethnicum with some orthographic changes (e.g. Κιβαλες⁵ < Κιβαλης < Κιβαλις < Κιβαλιος ?).

6 The name Ἀξιούμένη (“deemed worthy”) seems to be unattested [cf. “Αξιος (“worthy”) and Ἀξιώμα (“honour”)⁶].

7 The form Λαρμηνῷ is probably a mason’s error for the common Λαρμηνῷ rather than an unparalleled orthography (for a list of the various variants of this epitheton see Ritti–Şimşek–Yıldız 2000, 75).

“In the year 303, on the day before the last day of the eighth month, I, Aurelius Tatianos (from Kibal- ?), settled in Motella, assign my nursling Axioumene to Helios Apollon Lar(i)menos as hiera. If anyone objects, he will pay 2500 denarii to the god and 2500 denarii to the fiscus”.

Özet

Makaledede, 2010 yılında Apollon Lairbenos tapınağı kalıntıları üzerinde yapılan çalışmalar sırasında saptanan 7 adet yeni yazıt yayınlanmaktadır. Bu yazıtlardan no. 1 ve 2 iki ayrı arşitrav üzerinde, no. 3, 4 ve 5 bir heykel kaidesinin ön yüzünde, 6 ve 7 ise aynı kaidenin sağ yüzünde yer almaktadır:

1. Adak yazımı (İ.S. II. yy. başı): “Zenon'un oğulları olan, Blaunda'lı Phileteros ile Meiletos bu sütunu, platform ve kaide ve başlık ve arşitrav ve friz ve korniș ile birlikte Apollon Lairmenos için kendi paraları ile yaptırdılar”.

2. Adak yazımı (İ.S. I. yy. sonu - II. yy. başı): “... ve tapınağın kiremitlerini en yüce Tanrı Apollon Lairbenos'a ...”.

3. Adak yazımı (İ.S. 217/8'den önce): “... Vibius Onesimos, kız kardeşi ... ile birlikte bu heykeli en yüce Tanrı'nın buyruğu uyarınca Apollon Lairmenos için kendi gelirlerinden yaptırdı. ... yılının Artemisos ayında”.

4. Katagraphe (İ.S. 217/8): “302 yılının Artemisos ayında: Ben, Eutykhes'in ... Loulianos, kendi ivey oğlum Teimokrates ile oğlum (?) Loulianos'u Tanrı'nın buyruğu gereğince Apollon Lairbenos'a tahsis ediyorum. Eğer biri buna karşı çıkarsa, Tanrı'ya 2500 ve hazineye 2500 dinar (ceza) ödeyecektir”.

5. Katagraphe (İ.S. 218/9): “304 yılının 6. Ayının 8. Gününde: Ben, Euksenos'un oğlu ve M[- -] - Jos'un torunu Motella'lı Auf- - - Jos, kendi evlatlığım olan Trophime'yi (?), ebeveynlerim - os ile Phirmil(l)a'nın ve oğlum Euksenos'un da onayı ile, kutsal hizmetli (hiera) olarak Apollon
